

1. What way software projects are different from other types of projects?
2. Try writing your own meaningful definition for Software Engineering not repeating the existing definitions.
3. Is it necessary to select an appropriate methodology for developing software projects?
4. Is it possible to develop a quality software without following best practices?
5. How the systematic approach will contribute to low cost software products?
6. What is meant by CODE-and-FIX or BUILD-and-FIX model of software development?
7. Identify 4 major problems that would be faced if a software development uses build-and-fix model.
8. What are the advantage of modeling the solution before coding?
9. Will testing of code thoroughly guarantee that the software is 100% correct?
10. According to you, what is meant by “Readymade Product to Industries”.

DRAS – 23MX21 – DRAS – Outcome based questions on the topic – “Software Engineering Introduction” – (3 Marks Questions)